

Week 14: February 15th – February 19th. Topic of the week: Demonstrative adjectives.

Demonstrative adjectives are special adjectives used to identify nouns or pronouns by expressing its position as near or far. The demonstrative adjectives are: this, that, these and those.

Nota: En español, los adjetivos demostrativos corresponden a: esto/esta, eso/esa, estos/estas, esos/esas, ya que en inglés no se hace distinción de género en estos adjetivos, pero sí de número.

We can use this (singular) and these (plural) for people or things that are near us: We live in this house. – You have read all of these books.

We use that and those for people or things that are far from us: Who lives in that house? – I haven't read those books.

The activities of this week will have a value of 10 points.
