The Frog Prince

Once upon a time, there lived a beautiful princess who had a golden ball. One day, while playing in the garden, the ball 1)fell into a 2)pond. She was very 3)upset and did not know what to do. While she sat there crying 4)helplessly, a frog 5)hopped out of the pond and asked, "Why are you crying, little princess?" She told him about her golden ball. The ugly frog said, "I can help you get your ball but what will you give me in 6)return?" "I will give you anything you want!" promised the princess. The frog immediately 7)dived into the water and 8)fetches the ball for her. The princess was very happy. The frog 9)reminded her, "Remember that you promised me anything. Well, I want to be your friend, eat from your plate, and sleep in your palace!" The princess hated the idea but she 10)agreed and ran back to the palace. The next morning, the princess found the frog 11)waiting for her. He said, "I have come to live in your palace." Hearing this, the princess ran to her father, crying. When the kind king heard about the 12)promise, he told her, "A promise is a promise and you must keep your word. You must let the frog stay here." The princess was very angry but she had no 13)choice and let the frog stay. He ate from her plate during dinner and asked the princess to take him to her bed at night. The princess 14)picked him up angrily and threw him to the 15)floor. In a 16)flash, the frog turned into a handsome prince! He told the princess that he had actually been under the 17)spell of a 18)wicked 19) witch. The princess fell in love with the prince. They were 20) married and lived happily ever after.
